Sep. 14 - Thursday - Morning departure on a non-stop flight from LA to Montreal in the French Canadian Province of Quebec. France claimed this vast wilderness four-hundred years ago, sending missionaries to convert the Native Americans and plant the seeds of Catholicism in "New France." To this day, its influence, especially in the architecture, food, language, signage, and traditions of its people, is everywhere. Our first stop will be at St. Francis Xavier Mission in Kahnawake, just south of Montreal, to visit the burial place of St. Kateri Tekakwitha, Lily of the Mohawks. Born in Auriesville, NY, in 1656, Kateri embraced the faith the Black Robe Jesuit missionaries introduced to her and traveled north to this Canadian mission. Evening check-in St. Joseph's Oratory of Mount Royal guesthouse (3 nts).

Friday - A day in Montreal. Founded in 1642 as Ville-Marie, or "City of Mary", it is named after Mount Royal, the triple-peaked hill around which the city was built upon, on the island of Montreal. Stroll along Old Town's Boardwalk to the Basilica of Notre-Dame de Montreal (c.1820), with its exquisite Gothic-Renaissance architecture. Visit Notre-Dame-de-Bonsecours, one of the oldest churches in the city (1655). Known as the Sailors Church as it was customary for the sailors to stop in here to thank Our Lady for her "good help" on their voyages. See the tomb of St. Marguerite Bourgeoys, the 17th founder of the Congregation of of Notre Dame, who rallied the colonists of New France to build this church. Visit a museum dedicated to her life and the early history of Montreal with artifacts pre-dating the colonists. Free time in Old Town.

Saturday - A retreat oriented day at the Oratory of St. Joseph, the largest shrine dedicated to the foster father of Our Lord in the world. Situated on the slopes of Mt. Royal, this beautiful shrine is the work of the recently canonized lay brother, Andre Bessette, a humble doorkeeper, whose love of St. Joseph and confidence in his intercession inspired all he did. Visit the numerous chapels, the Basilica, his tomb and the gift shop.

Sunday - Morning departure northeast along the St. Lawrence River for Trois-Rivieres to visit Notre-Dame-du-Cap ("Our Lady of the Cape"), Canada's Nat'l. Shrine to the Blessed Mother, located in the majestic region of Mauricie. Set on the shores of the St. Lawrence River, Our Lady of the Cape welcomes pilgrims annually to pray at the oldest standing Canadian chapel, with origins dating back to 1635 when Jesuit missionaries first landed here and built a chapel dedicated to Our Lady. Visit the chapel and the new basilica and learn of the miracle of the Ice Bridge witnessed by Blessed Fr. Frederic Jansoone in 1888. Evening arrival and check-in at our hotel in Trois-Rivieres.

Monday - Today, we will head north for the town of St. Anne-de-Beaupre parallel to the St. Lawrence River at the foothills of the Laurentian Mountains. See Montmorency Falls, Quebec's natural treasure. Late afternoon arrival in St. Anne-de-Beaupre, the town that has been receiving pilgrims since 1658, imploring the favor of St. Anne, the mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary and grandmother of Our Lord. Check-in at our hotel (3 nights).

Rosary & Candlelight procession.

Tuesday - Full-day excursion to the 400-year-old capital of Quebec City, the only walled city north of Mexico. Sprawling across cliff-tops ascending from the banks of the St. Lawrence River, Quebec City has a dramatic skyline. Take a funicular ride from the Upper Town to Lower Town's Place Royale; the original trading post of Samuel de Champlain, who founded the city in 1608. As the first French settlement in North America, Old Quebec is truly reminiscent of 18th Century France. Walk along the cobblestone streets lined with stone houses, age-old churches, and quaint shoppes. Early evening return and overnight in St. Anne-de-Beaupre.

Wednesday - A retreat-style day at the amazing Shrine of St. Anne! Pilgrims have been coming here since 1658 to implore the favor of the mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary and grandmother of Our Lord. Visit the basilica where for hundreds of years, pilgrims have left their prayers at the base of the miraculous image of St. Anne. See the tomb of Venerable Alfred Pampalon, patron of those with addictions and have time to pray quietly and visit the gift shop.

Thursday - Sept. 21 - Morning check-out for Quebec City Airport for our flight to LA (with one connection). Late afternoon arrival at LAX.
